Importance: High

Dear Florent,

As noted below, Caron DeMars at the U.S. Embassy in Rome has kindly shared your meeting request with EPA. FYI, we have received a similar request through the French Embassy in Washington so I also am copying David Krembel on this e-mail.

Unfortunately, the Administrator's schedule in Bologna is still in flux so we are unable to confirm a specific time slot at this time. However, France is a very important partner so we will do our best to try to identify a possible time when everyone has arrived in Bologna and there is greater clarity on schedules. We do know that there is still some availability on the Administrator's calendar from 5:30-6:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 10th just prior to the G-7 welcome reception so if that could be a workable option, please let me know.

To facilitate future scheduling, we would appreciate your confirming the appropriate contact(s) from the EU side who will be in Bologna. From EPA, the on-the-ground contacts are Mark Kasman <kasman.mark@epa.gov> and Hodayah Finman <finman.hodayah@epa.gov>. It also would be very helpful if you could keep future responses looped into this e-mail chain so that other addressees can help to reach closure from Washington, if needed.

All the best,
Anna

Subject: Bilateral meeting between Minister Hulot and Minister Pruitt

Dear Ms. De Mars,

Minister Hulot would be happy to arrange a bilateral meeting with Minister Pruitt at the occasion of the Environment G7 ministerial meeting in Bologna.

Minister Hulot is not certain to be able to participate in the ministerial meeting on the 11th because of the Parliament elections in France, but he would be there on Monday 12th.

Would Minister Pruitt be still in Bologna on Monday ?

Thank you very much,

Kindly yours,

Florent Moretti
